The book succeeds when it shares intimate family moments, but too often it resorts to long passages of expository dialogue and fiddles with the facts to make the plot work. A concluding note attempts to separate fact from fiction and in so doing makes readers wonder why the author didn't simply tell his family's story and let such works as ...

A TUGGING STRING by David T. Greenberg | Kirkus Reviews

Amazon Customer Review: Five Stars Heart String Tug "I like all the books I've read by David Greenberg, as he is a first-class poet of the younger grades (and that includes college in the case of SLUGS) but here is this new one that really defies categorization. This novel makes you smile and sometimes laugh out loud.
