Digital Currents: Art in the Electronic Age by Margot Lovejoy

As Lovejoy's Digital Currents: Art in the Electronic Age documents in vivid detail, modern technology disrupts the history of experience; it changes not only the landscape but the way that landscape is seen. It shapes perception and induces a new kind of uneasiness, the distrust we feel toward tools and convenience that we would be reluctant to do without -devices that have, after all, done much to define what we are.
