YUSUF ALI: Golden Fish Has No Hiding Place

The more hiding places fish have the healthier they are. Don't take fish advice based on what you typically see. Most people have no clue. Gold fish don't tend to stress as much as other fish do. But all fish are happier and healthier if they feel safe and have places to hide. 0 2 0.

If your pond is open with no places for your fish to hide, a heron has no reason to move on as your pond is the perfect feeding ground. Adding fish shelters will give your goldfish and koi a place to retreat, and can work very well to stop herons taking fish in most situations.

Places
Goldfish are not shy fish, but hiding places will go a long way in making your fish feel more secure as well as providing a shelter from the shock of bright light when your aquarium lights are turned on. Sharp decorations should naturally be avoided, especially where fancy varieties are kept.
