You believe that they've turned a deaf ear to the voice of God; chasing money, and sex, and material things. You think that the gays and the Muslims and the Atheists and the pop stars have so screwed up the morality of the world that everyone is abandoning faith in droves. But those aren't the reasons people are leaving the church.

Dear Church, Here's Why People Are Really Leaving You

A few helpful guidelines a local church would likely wish to adopt could include: -No donations or purchases are required for those attending church services. -No high-pressure sales. -Selling must be in some way related to helping the mission of the church rather than simply making a profit.

I know of no absolute statements on the control of money in the church in scripture. Much of the structure of our churches has been established by man. The Bible gives certain guidelines and then leaves many of the details of church organization to us. However, as in all things, the scripture has some precepts that should guide our decisions.

The Money in the Church | Learn The Bible

38.1. Church Participation. Our Father in Heaven loves all His children. "All are alike unto God," and He invites all "to come unto him and partake of his goodness" (2 Nephi 26:33). Church leaders and members are often asked who can attend meetings of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, who can become Church members, and who can attend a temple.

38. Church Policies and Guidelines

Crowdfunding is a great way for the individuals in your church to raise money for specific projects or causes. For instance, if an assistant pastor and his family are looking to go on a mission trip, they can set up a crowdfunding page for members of the church to give directly online.
