It's John Lescroart at his best, with his extensive development of characters, particularly the leading ones. The revelation of the murderer, or at least who appears to be the murderer, comes earlier in the story than usual, but the way it happens is very interesting. And, we get to know Wes Farrell and Abe Glitzsky even more than before. Loved it!

Abe Glitsky Series by John Lescroart - Goodreads

Talk about paradigm shifts when it comes to legal thrillers! GUILT is a fabulous, action packed police and legal thriller, but has a freshness rarely seen in the genre, perhaps because it is written by a non-lawyer. John Lescroart is one of the top three in the sub-genre and his latest novel, GUILT, will leave no one guilty by reading it.

Damage (Abe Glitsky, #3) by John Lescroart

Guilt pervades the plot: Glitsky's over his wife's slow death from cancer; Farrell's over a less-than-stellar law career; Christina's over an old abortion. Only Doohar can say, "I don't feel any guilt"--though he'll be joined by the many thriller fans who won't feel a twinge about spending a few hours with this robust and intelligent ...
