I am getting sick and tired of the conservatives on here complaining about BLM every day. i saw someone post something about America being a “white country”, but you see, black people and other minorities wouldn’t even be in America if your ancestors didn’t bring them here to be slaves so like? They’re literally people too.

Is anyone else sick and tired of all this black lives ...

It honestly makes me sick, not because it's not a problem. If black people feel like there's racism towards them and want better opportunities (as long they can prove there is indeed racism and inequality), then they’re free to protest (I am against rioting for obvious reasons), but it's very annoying for me to see how out of proportion this whole thing blew even tho it's limited to the US.

Anyone else here sick of hearing about the riots, BLM, and ...
