Summary and reviews of It's Our Turn to Eat by Michela Wrong

It's Our Turn to Eat is the sad story of his failure, and of the many ways in which he was let down. Githongo was given ready access to Kibaki, but despite a clear mandate his position was never precisely defined; more significantly, he was not charged (or empowered) with either formally investigating corruption (though he did a good deal of informal investigating) or prosecuting it.
