SOC 2014, Third Edition Update by Jon Witt (9780077443191)

For Marx, social inequality is determined by ownership, or lack thereof, of key material resources. Max Weber (1864–1920) argued that who has power was determined not only by social class and control of material resources, but also by—among others—social status and organizational resources. These social resources draw their power from ...
