When I started playing at Mass at 15 years old, Glory and Praise (which I love and respect) was the only compilation of contemporary liturgical music out there. Eventually, I started writing songs here or there to try and fill a specific need at liturgy. (Our God and parts of Mass of Saint Ann were the first pieces.) Eventually, people asked ...

"We try to do that with our music at every liturgy." From the popular Christmas sing-a-long to the must-hear band at Life Teen Masses, music at St. Ann's underscores so much of what we do. Each week, the Music Ministry looks at the readings and considers which songs would help bring the scripture to life.
