The Master Tarot is based on the life and works of Jesus, however the artist Mario Montano emphasizes that, "This Jesus...is not the Jesus of any church, of any sect or religion - it is the Jesus felt inside a single heart - or two, perhaps, if you, the reader, are also touched by this Master." This deck is not organized in the same way as most tarot decks.

It was apparently conceived by Mario Montano and features the marvelous artwork of Amerigo Folchi. Occasionally that artwork is somewhat derivative, based upon famous paintings from history. I do not know how well the deck lends itself to readings, especially if one is not familiar with the New Testament, but for Christians it is a fascinating set of cards.

I also have a companion book written by the artist and Francesca Marzano-Fritz and published by Bluestar Communications. The other deck I'll be drawing from is called a tarot, but I'll be using it as an oracle: the Master Tarot. It was created by Amerigo Folchi and Mario Montano and published by AG Muller.
