Mitosis is the phase of the eukaryotic cell cycle that occurs between DNA replication and the formation of two daughter cells. It occurs in four phases called prophase, metaphase, anaphase, and telophase. The stages are shown in Figure 5and are described in greater detail in the following sections. Figure 4 - Mitosis and Cytokinesis

Unit 5 Part 1 - Mitosis and the Cell Cycle
Students will describe the role of mitosis in asexual reproduction, and/or the role of meiosis in sexual reproduction, including how these processes may contribute to or limit genetic variation. Students will describe specific events occurring in each of the stages of the cell cycle and/or phases of mitosis, including cytokinesis.
