After The Kiss Terra Elan

After the kiss is a Romance book. It includes in the title a little romance feeling. Not only that, throughout the book you get two different stories of two different girls and their perspective on life. Camille and Becca are living two different lives without even knowing each other. Eventually, all because of one boy everything will change.

After the Kiss by Terra Elan McVoy - Goodreads

After the Kiss. Becca has been head-over-heels for Alec from the instant they met. He's a brainy jock with a poet's heart—in other words, perfect for her. Camille is careful with her words and protective of her heart, especially since Chicago. Then a new boy in her new town catches her off guard with a surprise kiss.

What is a summary of After the Kiss by Terra Elan McVoy ...

The kiss itself, though marketed as the most important event in the book, is only one of many incidents that force both Becca and Camille out of their own minds and into their lives. Speaking in a second-person stream-of-consciousness narration, Camille is hard to get to know; there are often a lot of excess words to wade through before getting to the meat of her ideas.
