Edge Of Oblivion Night Prowler

"Edge of Oblivion, second in the Night Prowler series by J.T. Geissinger, starts off with intensity and never slows down ... The paranormal romance genre is flooded with tales of shapeshifters, but Edge of Oblivion really stands alone because of the animalistic qualities of the characters, the social issues the novel and series address, as well as the high-quality writing from the author."

"Edge of Oblivion" is the second book in the 'Night Prowler' series. I actually wished I read the first book, but after some confusion and finding the answers to my questions, I was hook in the story line. J.T. pens her characters interesting in a well developed plot that has plenty of suspense, action and romance with a touch of the paranormal/fantasy world.

Edge Of Oblivion (Night Prowler #2) | J.T. Geissinger

The second Night Prowler romantic urban fantasy is an engaging suspense thriller with a similar underlying premise as in Shadow's Edge with readers wondering whether Xander can execute his beloved. The affected dialect of the Ikati anchors the Geissinger mythos with a freshness that needs some adjustment to accept from the audience.
