Fate is that which you cannot change. Destiny is that which you're meant to do. While fate is what happens when you don't take responsibility for your life, destiny is what happens when you commit to growing, learning, and taking chances. Being "destined for greatness" only comes through active and conscious decisions. But fate is what happens when you let other people and external circumstance dictate your life.

Fate & Destiny Part I - The Two Agreements

Both are a necessary and functioning part of a living soul. In simple equation form, then, the physical + spirit = a living soul. And if we then take this one step further we could conclude that both realms of "fate", the physical and the spiritual, are a necessary and interegral part of what I would call our "destiny".
