I felt a bit blue last night as I finished Fire Study, the third and final volume in Maria V. Snyder 's Study Trilogy. Though she is currently working on a new series following a side character from the Study books, this is the last one to center on the adventures of Yelena, the convicted murderer, turned poison taster, turned diplomatic liaison.

Power Study is a free short story that can be read on Maria V. Snyder's website here. It fits into the time line of the series during events in Fire Study so I wouldn't recommend reading it until after you've finished that book. Ari and Janco were my favourite side characters in the series, they added a lot of humour to every scene they were in ...
