The Godard family disappearance, involved the disappearance of French doctor Yves Godard, his second wife and their two children in September 1999. Clues to the mystery were gradually discovered: traces of blood were found in the family home near Juvigny-sur-Seulles in Calvados, Lower Normandy. It was established that Godard and his two children departed on a sailing boat rented in Saint-Malo, Brittany, a few days before the discovery of the blood. During the course of the next few years, variou

Here Godard works counter to Hitchcock's statement by decelerating and reshaping the fireworks-embellished kiss from To Catch a Thief (1955): enclosed in a diamond-shaped frame, Grace Kelly and Cary Grant, in a profile two-shot, gradually lean towards each other. Godard re-edits the shot so that it's bracketed by explosions of light and colour situated elsewhere in the original.
