The book was one of the few books available for hockey coaches on how to run a practice and teach skills. The book helped me immensely and is considered one of the best books ever written for hockey coaches and players. In 1980, the SRHS Hockey Spartans won the P.E.I. School Athletic Association Hockey Championship with me behind the bench.

The Game and Home Game by Dryden are must reads. Also liked Boys of Winter about the 1980 USA hockey team. There is also a book called "Chill Factor" by David Paitson about the history of the ECHL Columbus Chill and how they paved he way for the NHL and the Blue Jackets here. Pretty good story if you like hockey history.
