HP Lovecraft, I actually had nightmares as I

journeyed through the book. I have little

experience on terror,

but I enjoyed how the

author can unravel,

twist and surprise.

Given this book is the

full collection of works, it is quite long, but I probably Lovecraft's most influential story, serving as the basis for his epic "Old Ones" mythos. It centers around an ancient dragon-sea monster hybrid that implants itself subconsciously into human minds, driving them slowly insane. The cultists who worship Cthulhu commit ritual killings and chant in tongues. As more details of the creature and its history
