[vc_row][vc_column][vc_column_text]This is a tree I see from the window of my living room and bedroom. It is an oak – a pedunculated oak, one of a few hundred oak species in Europe. My colleagues – foresters – would be able to say a lot of other interesting things about this species' biology. For me, in that respect, it is already enough. It is just a beautiful, majestic tree that I ...
