Outsourcing - Wikipedia

Business process outsourcing (BPO) is the contracting of a specific business task , such as payroll, human resources (HR) or accounting, to a third-party service provider. Usually, BPO is implemented as a cost-saving measure for tasks that a company requires but does not depend upon to maintain their position in the marketplace.

What is Business Process Outsourcing? How Does BPO Work?

Another way to analyze business process outsourcing is to look at where third-party services are provided. Here, there are three categories—offshore, nearshore and onshore BPO. Offshore BPO involves outsourcing business processes to any country in the world, typically countries that are overseas from the client company.
