The Dry Grass Of August

The Dry Grass of August is Anna Jean Mayhew's first book and it reminded me a lot of the book, The Secret Life of Bees. Dry Grass is well-written, though not as lyrical as Secret Life. However, both books provide a front-row viewing of how white people treated black people in the late '50s/early '60s.

The Dry Grass Of August : Anna Jean Mayhew : 9780758254092

THE DRY GRASS OF AUGUST is a touching chronicle of a period of time in Jubie's life that would forever define who she would be. It's a coming of age story emanating from a tragic event. My favorite part of the book was Jubie's compassion, strength and growing awareness of the world she lives in. Jubie's relationship with Mary was typical of girls raised in the South by a working or ...
