WOLVES, BOYS, & OTHER THINGS THAT MIGHT KILL ME is a sensitive, delightful, thought-provoking coming-of-age tale. Chandler uses a mix of story, book quotes, lists, jokes, recipes, newspaper clippings and (my favorite!) KJ's poetry to create a story that is tense and suspenseful but at times hilarious and Might Kill Me is not, as some have speculated, another werewolf book. What it is, however, is a fascinating and unique take on small town life with all of its loyalties and quirks, and how this community in particular reacts and divides when faced with the re-introduction of wolves in Yellowstone Park.
